

Epilog

Despite some minor communications between us, I was not able to meet Maestro Saramago in person. Destiny had it, however, that I would be in Lisbon in June 2010 just at the time of his wake. There, in the midst of the heartfelt vigil, I prayed for him a Divine Mercy Novena.